

THE AFRICAN AMERICAN PARENTS ADVISORY COUNCIL & THE COMMUNITY
ADVISORY COMMITTEE FOR SPECIAL EDUCATION PRESENTS

A FIRESIDE CHAT ABOUT EARLY LITERACY

Learning to read is an important life skill. How do parents know they are doing the right things when teaching their children to read? How do parents know what are the red flags and what the school should be using to teach children to read?

NOVEMBER 17, 2022

5:30 - 7:30PM

LEOLA HAVARD AUDITORIUM

1520 OAKDALE AVE

CHILDCARE AND DINNER PROVIDED

Register in advance for this meeting here.

<https://tinyurl.com/CACANDAAPAC>

Our expert panel will share about important concepts, strategies, and interventions that cultivate early learners love of literacy.

ASL and interpretation services are available with advance notice. To reserve, please send an email to cacspedsf@gmail.com or call 415-447-7802.

Contact AAPAC via email at aapac@sfusd.edu.

Join the CAC email list to receive notifications of future meetings, subscribe here or email cacspedsf@gmail.com or call 415-447-7802.